Extend your ideas, drawing and mixed media skills to make a more emotive and individual response to portraiture. Either work from yourself with a mirror or bring plenty of photos or drawings of family and friends. Detailed preliminary studies which will include some collage and monotypes, provide the starting point for developing your initial studies into finished drawings or mixed media works investigating pose, character, personality and mood. Bring accessories; hats, scarves, assorted clothing to explore different aspects of character and personality and as a fun way to get going.

David Fairbairn has exhibited extensively throughout Australia & overseas since 1981. David has been awarded many prizes including the Dobell Drawing Prize, Doug Moran Portrait Prize, Kedumba Drawing Award and the Mosman Art Prize. David has taught at many art schools in Sydney & Canberra including over 20 years at NAS and is represented by Port Jackson Print Gallery in Melbourne.
