Watercolour landscape

Break down to build

LEVEL:
*Some experience

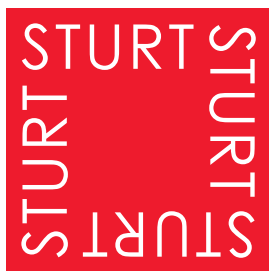

COST:
$825 + 60 materials

Build your expertise as a watercolour artist and unlock new approaches for elements of landscape. Mist, snow and atmospherics require vastly different approaches to painting a water source for example. By breaking down elements of a landscape such as sky, snow and flora with a singular focus, the whole landscape lifts! With fresh approaches and skills introduced in the first three days, the remaining days of your Winter School week will focus on completing a 76x57cm watercolour landscape.

Phillip Edwards is a Victorian artist, member of the Australian Watercolour Institute, a Wynne prize finalist and is represented in Victoria by Australian Galleries (Collingwood) and in NSW by Art Atrium (Botany).
